Role

Are you living in a major city in Europe and want to promote it with your video skills?

Then this opportunity is perfect for you!

This is a fantastic internship for a creative multimedia student, to gain practical experience creating tourism and local culture focused videos, promoting the area in which you live. These will include things to do and see, history, food and more! Mentored throughout, you will conceptualise the project, film it and edit videos showcasing the best locations to visit and things to experience.

Your work will then be published and credited to a YouTube channel with an audience of over 3 million subscribers and the Host Company website. This is a great opportunity to showcase your talents and build an exciting portfolio to enhance your future career prospects.

Tasks

- Plan and create video concepts that will appeal to travellers or tourists in your local area
- Present and defend your concept idea according to the Host Company' standards
- Go film! Go out and film your concepts using creative techniques
- Report your progress on a weekly basis with your mentor to agree action plans depending on your concept's development
- Edit the clips together, to tell an exciting, interesting story that sells the desired location
- Present your result as you go, take feedback from your supervisor and tweak for the next video, to improve and go again!

Desired Skills

- Studying for a degree in multimedia and communications, film or similar
- Good filming skills: filming will be your passion
- Excellent at video editing: any software can be used depending on your preference
- Able to work autonomously
- Conscientious, thorough, able to work consistently and accurately

The Host Company

This host company, launched in 2011, is based in Northern Ireland. It is a digital agency that helps its clients with website development, content marketing and video marketing. As part of its own marketing and publishing online, it has created several brands. One of these is a travel and tourism brand. They are keen to add video content from around the world, and are committed to making this a great opportunity for a keen videographer to build out a great portfolio of work.
